

British Science Week poster competition

Full terms and conditions

Updated January 2026

1. Only up to 5 entries per school/organisation/group are allowed.
2. Only schools within the UK, including BFPO addresses, are eligible to enter the competition.
3. We reserve the right to make changes to prizes.
4. There will be one overall winner and runner up per age category. There will also be one overall popular vote winner.
5. Posters will be judged based on the judging criteria. The popular vote winner will be chosen based on likes via the British Science Week Facebook page.
 - 5.1 The winner of the popular vote will be decided based on the post with the most likes.
 - 5.2 The dates and times of the popular vote will be updated closer to the time. No likes after this date shall be counted.
6. Entries must be submitted digitally – scans or photos of the original poster are accepted. 3D models are not eligible for the competition. Flaps are allowed, as long as the poster still makes sense without the flaps being lifted.
7. Entries that do not include details of the entrants (see above) in the entry form will not be eligible to win a prize, although student names are not required and we encourage you NOT to send students' full names.
8. All entries must be registered through the online form to be eligible to receive a prize.
9. Winners will be notified via the email submitted through the online form.
10. There is no entry fee and no purchase necessary to enter this competition.
11. If the winner cannot be contacted or does not claim the prize within five days of notification, we reserve the right to withdraw the prize from the winner and pick a replacement winner.
12. The promoter's decision in respect of all matters to do with the competition will be final and no correspondence will be entered into. This includes any judging that occurs.
13. Entrant's first name, age and school name will be announced on social media and on our website. If you do not wish for this data to be shared you should make this explicit on the entry form.
14. Entries may be displayed and used for marketing, with only first names used.
15. All entries must be made online, as listed above.
16. Prizes are non-transferable.
17. Entry into the competition will be deemed as acceptance of these terms and conditions.
